A WINNING DAILY first of all is a successful daily, one which, according to the dictionary, has been successful, ESPECIALLY IN COMPETITION. To win or succeed, one must have competition or difficulties to surmount by persistence or struggle.

Nowhere in the business world is there greater competition than in the newspaper field. Every city of any importance in the country has two or more dailies occupying practically the same field. One or the other is bound to succeed or WIN OVER THE OTHER. We therefore have a winning daily in that locality. The others may have certain elements of success, but one in particular stands out as a winner.—Franklin Irwin in Newspaperdom.

STREET SALES

Tell the story of popularity. They show what paper the people buy to get the news. The BULLETIN sells more papers than all others combined.

The WEEKLY BULLETIN has a larger circulation than any weekly or semi-weekly in the Territory.

The BULLETIN covers the daily and weekly field more thoroughly than any other paper in the Territory.

The BULLETIN WINS OUT in a COMPETITIVE FIELD. It is the WINNING DAILY OF HAWAII.

Governor Carter and National Committee Parker have buried the hatchet without seeking advice from the morning press.

Governor Carter has completed the appointment task. The bond money is available. The Territory wants action. Now go ahead.

At last Turkey has been given notice that the European revolt against its treatment of Macedonia is a reality, which can only be averted by an honest reformation.

John W. Farwell, of this city, received by cable on the 20th inst. the sad news of the death of his mother in Chicago. Mrs. Farwell had been ailing for some time and the end was not unexpected. The many friends of Mr. Farwell sympathize with him in his deep bereavement.

Little things count particularly in communities like our own. Governor Carter issued a Thanksgiving proclamation. It was merely in line with American ideas, but people like these little "merelys." The Governor presides at the Thanksgiving service. This doesn't require a master effort, but it shows the right spirit. Governor Carter will find many little things to do in his official life that, given reasonable attention, will count as much in the long run as the big and more troublesome affairs of his position.

American newspapermen undoubtedly lead the world in the application of mechanical genius to the service of their enterprise. They have set the pace for hustling the news, but occasionally the Europeans get in a piece of novel work that shows that they are to be reckoned with. A London dispatch tells of the Daily Mail handling the great Birmingham speech of Joseph Chamberlain by means of the telegraph which enabled the Mail reporters to take down the speech in the office, 113 miles distant. The speech was printed verbatim, and the paper was selling on the street twenty-seven minutes after the speech was concluded. The telegraph beat the telegraph 1 hour 27 minutes. Beating the telegraph by such a large margin forebadows great things in newspaper service for the telegraph, and suggests by the way that the telegraph bears no relation to the Honolulu telephone except it be the difference.

THANKSGIVING.

Thanksgiving Day represents one of the most wholesome customs of the American nation. Originating at a period when American forefathers were fighting a harder battle for existence than their progeny have encountered, it has been passed down to the American by birth or naturalization as the day of days on which the people recognize and contemplate their moral obligation to God and country.

Our country knows no God of creeds. It eschews the church of State. It recognizes, however, the God over all, the moral spirit implanted in every human heart that urges each citizen to be a man, true to his God, true to his country. High standards of citizenship mean more to our country than any other on earth. We are not monarch-rulers. Our country is what we make it. And its success and the individual contentment of its people depends upon the average standard of upright honest citizenship among the people of every city, town and hamlet under the American flag. The pious fraud is as dangerous to the country as the malicious thief.

As a part of the great Union, Hawaii has much for which it has reason to be thankful. It has also great responsibilities in meeting the obligations which fall to the lot of its citizens in maintaining the high American standard for righteousness, justice and truth.

FEDERAL JURY READY TO "ROAST"

Federal grand jury this morning sat in the Supreme Court room upstairs in the Judiciary building, all members being present. The committee of two, appointed by the main body to examine the vouchers of the House of Representatives, is said to have reported this morning. The court, taking a recess until 2 o'clock p. m., evidently anticipated a report. One of the jurors stated at noon, however, that no report was likely until Monday. This afternoon the inquisition will adjourn until Friday morning, tomorrow being Thanksgiving.

Many of the members of the House of Representatives returned to their homes on the other islands by yesterday's steamers.

Representative Greenwell, of Hawaii, remained in town. It is understood that the report of the Federal jury will contain no indictments, indeed it is said to be impossible that indictments be returned by this body; it is positively stated that the report, indictments or no indictments, will be a "roast" for some and it is said it will recommend the taking up of the matter of the vouchers and other legislative doings by the Territorial grand jury.

Witnesses before the Federal expect to be called before the Territorial grand jury on the very subjects upon which the United States jury has already examined them.

SONOMA FROM 'FRISCO

The Oceanic steamship Sonoma arrived from San Francisco this forenoon. She was docked at the Hackfeld wharf at about 12:30 p. m. As she was docking the band on board the German training ship Herzogin Sophie Charlotte, which was lying at the railroad wharf opposite the place where the Sonoma docked, saluted the incoming vessel with American airs.

The Sonoma left San Francisco November 19 at 4 p. m. She met rough weather on the first two days out which delayed her to some extent. During the rest of the passage, pleasant weather was experienced. The voyage was absolutely uneventful.

The Sonoma brought a fairly large list of passengers for Honolulu, among them being a number of well known island people.

Mrs. R. L. Halsey is the wife of Rev. Mr. Halsey who recently arrived here from San Francisco to fill the position of Japanese Interpreter at the Immigration Station. She is accompanied CONGRESSMAN LIVINGSTON Says Pe-ru-na is a Splendid Catarrhal Tonic.

COLONEL L. L. LIVINGSTON, Member of the Industrial Commission and the leading Democratic member of the Committee on Appropriations in the House of Representatives, whose home is at Atlanta, Ga., writes:

"I take pleasure in joining with General Wheeler, Congressman Brewer and others in recommending Peruna as an excellent tonic and a catarrh cure."—Col. L. L. Livingston, Catarrh Cured.

All phases of catarrh, acute or chronic, are promptly and permanently cured. It is through its operation upon the nervous system that Peruna has attained such a world-wide reputation as a sure and reliable remedy for all phases of catarrh wherever located.

Mr. Jas. O. Morin, 1179 Ontario street Montreal, Canada, writes:

"Peruna is certainly a great catarrh remedy. It cured me of catarrh of the head and I gladly endorse it. Canadians are peculiarly afflicted with this disease and for years the doctors have tried to overcome it with elixirs, powders and pills, but Peruna has solved the question and since the medicine has been established here hundreds of people have been cured of catarrh."—Jas. O. Morin. If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice free.

Address: Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

For special directions every one should read "The Ills of Life," a copy of which surrounds each bottle. Peruna is for sale by all chemists and druggists at one dollar per bottle, or six bottles for five dollars.

Those wishing direct correspondence with Dr. Hartman and can wait the necessary delay in receiving a reply, should address Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, U. S. A. Benson, Smith & Co. will supply the retail drug trade in Honolulu.

SAILING DIRECTIONS

(Continued from Page 1.) book which was compiled by Ensign R. C. Ray, U. S. N., in 1899. This was an advance publication of so much of a contemplated book of sailing directions for the Pacific Ocean as related to the Hawaiian Islands and neighboring waters. The second edition covers the same region but has been completely rewritten.

The book contains the following main divisions: Information relating to navigational aids and general navigation, Snt. of United States Hydrographical Office charts of Hawaiian and outlying islands. The Hawaiian Islands: general information, Hawaii and Aleutian channel, Maui and Aialakiki channel, Kahoolawe, Lanai and Molokai, and Kealahakiki, Auau, Palolo and Kailua channels; Oahu and Kaula channel; Kaula and Niihau; the islands, rocks and shoals to the westward.

The book is a neat little cloth covered volume, the information contained in which will prove to be of incalculable value especially to strangers who arrive here. The chapters on the local waters and the islands were very incomplete in the first edition and in some instances even incorrect. As they appear now, completely rewritten by Captain Rodman, they furnish a complete and absolutely correct guide to the navigation of the Hawaiian waters.

A brick building suitable for manufacturing plant, is offered for rent. See For Rent, page 8.

A large dwelling house in Chaplain lane, near Fort street, is offered for rent.

The steamer carries a large list of passengers for Auckland and Pago-Pago. She brings 350 tons of freight for this port.

The Sonoma will sail for the Colonies at about midnight.

For choice groceries see S. J. Salter, Fort street, above Beretania.

PIANO TUNING

Pianos need tuning frequently. It is better for the piano—keeps the tone more sweet and mellow.

Better for the player, as a perfectly tuned piano educates the ear to correct sound and harmony, while an instrument out of tune is often disastrous to the ear training. We will send you an expert tuner on short notice at a reasonable charge.
